

SNU President Fellowship (SPF)

Spring 2021

1. Overview

Based on the recognition that the main driver for national development of Korea has been its human capital, Korea is now responsible to share its experiences with other developing nations. Recognizing its global social responsibility, Seoul National University launched the SNU President Fellowship to provide opportunities to faculty members of major universities in developing countries to pursue Ph.D. degrees at SNU.

2. Details of the Award

A recipient of SPF will be awarded the following:

- ♦ Full tuition fee for maximum six semesters
- ♦ KRW 1,500,000~2,000,000 monthly stipend for 3~4 years*
- ♦ A round-trip airfare (economy class based on GTS system)
- ♦ Korean language training (Evening Class during the regular semester)
- ♦ Group Medical Insurance
- ♦ Selection priority for SNU BK Residence Halls

* All doctoral programs at the Seoul National University system have an established length of time for completion of a doctoral program (called Normative Time), which is usually three years. Recipients will have the choice to select to either receive monthly stipend of KRW 2,000,000 for 3 years, or KRW 1,500,000 for 4 years (if you feel it may be difficult to complete your degree in three years).

3. Eligibility

An applicant must be BOTH:

- ♦ a faculty member WITHOUT Ph.D. degree from universities in developing countries.
- ♦ A newly admitted student to SNU as a Ph.D. student for Spring 2021 semester

* Faculty members from Asia, Africa, South America region will be given priority

4. Research Areas

Applicants can apply to pursue Ph.D. in any research area but selection priority will be given to applicants doing exceptional work in engineering, medicine, public health, agriculture, developmental studies, and Korean studies.
