

International architectural workshops SoEas+y now in Varketili!

If you are a student of Architecture, a graduate in this field or a person simply interested in the town's structure and the quality of urban life, apply for the architectural workshops SoEas+y in Varketili.

The workshops will be carried out by the Polish architects from the +48 Design Group in cooperation with the Development Policy Foundation and Georgian partners: Tbilisi Centre Media Union, Europe Our House, Guerilla Gardening, Community Centre House of Yezidi and Younch Humanists Association

The participation in the workshops is free of charge. The alerts submitted through the website lamazikalaki.org will provide foundations for architectural work.

Taking alerts as a point of departure, we will together design a public space intervention which will be an architectural response to the identified problems.

Candidates are kindly asked to send their portfolios with short information about themselves and CVs at the email address soeas+y@fpr.org.pl

More information about the project can be found at www.soeasty.eu and www.lamazikalaki.eu
