

Erasmus+

GTU Representative STT Mobility at the University of Alcala

On 6 -11 June, 2022, the Head of the Department of Exam Processes and e-Learning Systems at the Exam and e-learning Recourses Centre and Assoc. Prof. Tamar Kupreishvili at GTU Faculty of Law and International Relations, visited the University of Alcala (Alcala, Spain) within Erasmus+ mobility project for training activities and participated in the International Staff week, organized by the Coordinator university.

At the University of Alcala, Tamar Kupreishvili attended the International Staff Week, and actively was involved in the activities, such as presentations, and speeches in the field of the enhancing internationalization. The presentations and the speeches were held by the professors and coordinators of the University of Alcala, also the participant Universities' representatives. The presentations related to the topic of "Erasmus going digital" were delivered by Antonio Guerrero, the program coordinator; Ms. Pepa Rodriguez; Mr. Nacho Rodrigues; Mr. Jorge Serrano.

During the International Staff Week, the participants visited different faculties of the University of Alcala, where the guests were met by the top management of the faculties and its representatives, who made the presentations about their faculties and introduced them to the guests: Faculty of Law; Faculty of Architecture; Faculty of Economics, Business and Tourism; Faculty of Philosophy and Arts; Faculty of Pharmacy.

International staff week participants represented different Universities from six continents. The communication process between them was very interesting and important, especially, when they conducted the presentations of their countries and Universities.

Tamar Kupreishvili presented Georgian Technical University in general, also briefly introduced GTU Examination Center, talked about the Faculty of Law and International Relations and its specifics. One of the coordinators of University of Alcala, who was at the same time a PhD student at the University of Alcala, became interested in the Georgian Technical University and, specifically, in the international relations' doctoral program of the Faculty of Law and International Relations. He expressed his desire to spend a week within ongoing Erasmus+ mobility project at GTU, which was scheduled for July this year.

Also, the Spanish hosts and the students of the University of Alcala added the diversity to the International Staff Week with various cultural events and the guests could visit the city's historical and cultural attractions, museums, theaters, and the library. Also, guests were invited for lunch and dinner several times.

Here are some photos:

