

MEETING SCENARIO PLAN

Dedicated to the International Day of Peace

Date: September 21, 2022.

Time: 13.10-14.00

Location: blue hall of the DSUIA, ZOOM platform. Conference ID: 85220386338, password 111111.

Target audience: students of higher education, foreign students.

The purpose of the event: It is important for young people to let the whole community know that young people are against war and no matter where they are, in what country they are - they are united in one thing - they want to live in peace in order to be able to plan, create, believe in fulfilling your dreams. What exactly can each of the young people do for peace.

The beginning of the meeting:

- The meeting is opened by the Head of Student Self-Government of the National Institute of Law and Innovative Education of the State University of Ukraine, Mykyta Fedorchak, who will talk about the volunteering activities of students of the State University of Ukraine, their assistance to temporarily displaced persons in the conditions of martial law in Ukraine.

Joining the meeting of the audience of European partner universities regarding volunteering in their countries.

- Speeches by foreign students of the State University of Applied Sciences, Elijah OEIKHEN (Nigeria) and Ayoub BAMBAM (Morocco) regarding the situation in their countries and the need for peace for development.
- Student Oryna KOVINENKO will share her thoughts on the active position of young people in the fight against the challenges of the war in Ukraine.
- Student Nadia SLAVINSKA, currently studying at Vytautas the Great University, will talk about her father, who directly defends peace in Ukraine with a weapon in hand.

At the end of the meeting, each student must take a selfie with the words: "I'm for peace! I'm against war!" and post on your pages in social networks.

Put on a white t-shirt, support the initiative of young people across Europe dedicated to celebrating the International Day of Peace.